Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-7, 9-15, 21-28, 30-36, 38-41, 43-49, 51-56, 58-65 and 67-70 are allowed.
5. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
 - a. Applicant disclose a systems and methods that facilitate both customer and fleet manager productivity from selection of particular equipment desired to be leased through delivery are described herein. The system includes a server having a database for storing data relating to an aircraft fleet. The stored data includes specific information relating to aircraft in the fleet, as well as terms of existing leases for those aircraft in the fleet then currently leased. The system is accessible to the customer via a network such as a wide area network, e.g., an extranet accessible via the internet, so that the customer can query the database and identify aircraft that meet specific mission requirements. Applicant invention is novel and innovative in the sense that, it matches the customer provided information with the aircraft information stored within the database by applying predetermined search rules including a first rule wherein only aircraft selected as being available by the lessor are returned by a search if the exact match is not available for a specified delivery date matches in nearest available months are displayed, a second rule wherein for each aircraft viewable by the customer at least one of a country and region may be identified into which that aircraft may not be leased, a third rule wherein for each aircraft a tax based restriction may be specified the tax based restriction includes a geographical region, a fourth rule wherein aircraft engines are retrieved based on a minimum engine thrust amount and a fifth rule wherein aircraft are retrieved based on an aircraft weight. Joseph, (US PG Pub No. 2001/0034690) the closest prior art teach a method for facilitating transfer of automobile leases involves providing a website which displays a menu giving a visitor an option of either creating a record including details of the visitor and of a leased automobile whose lease the visitor intends to assign, or viewing a list of records, each record including a description of a leased automobile and an owner thereof. If the visitor intends to create a record, the visitor is directed to a page at the website where the visitor can input information pertaining to a leased automobile and information to enable another visitor to the website to contact the visitor. The record created by the visitor is stored in a database. If the visitor intends to view a record or records, the visitor is directed to a page at the website where the visitor can view at least
